(Organization Name) is proud to be a member of the Kansas Housing Advocacy Network (KHAN), a statewide coalition committed to advancing housing stability and opportunity for all Kansans. Together with partners across the state, we're working to strengthen policies that expand access to safe, stable, and affordable housing while reducing barriers that prevent individuals and families from thriving.

We're excited to share information about Kansas' new eviction expungement law, which gives eligible Kansans the opportunity to remove certain satisfied or dismissed eviction records from the public record. This important policy helps reduce barriers to housing, employment, and long-term economic stability while moving us closer to ensuring every Kansan has a place to call home.

Effective July 1, Kansas' new eviction expungement law is now in effect. This milestone reflects the power of unified, statewide advocacy and the collective efforts of KHAN members, legislative champions, legal partners, and community advocates working together to strengthen housing stability across Kansas. While we celebrate this achievement, we know our work is far from over, and we remain committed to advancing practical solutions that create lasting housing opportunities for all Kansans. (Organization Name) is proud to be a member of the Kansas Housing Advocacy Network (KHAN), a statewide coalition working to advance housing stability and opportunity for all Kansans. Through collaboration, education, and advocacy, KHAN members are working together to build stronger communities where everyone has the opportunity to thrive.

We're excited to help share information about Kansas' new eviction expungement law, which provides eligible residents with a pathway toward a fresh start and greater housing access. An eviction record can continue to create barriers long after a case has been resolved, and eviction expungement offers eligible Kansans an opportunity to move forward with greater stability and opportunity.

Effective July 1, Kansas' new eviction expungement law is now in effect. This accomplishment was made possible through years of unified, statewide advocacy by KHAN members, legislative leaders, housing advocates, and community partners across Kansas. Together, we celebrate this important milestone while continuing our work to expand housing opportunities, reduce housing instability, and ensure every Kansan has a place to call home.
