13. The agency periodically affirms its programs in light of its mission and ensures that the agency has the organizational capacity (qualified staff, appropriate facilities and financial resources) to implement the program(s).
14. The agency has defined outcomes for each program and has a system in place to measure and report progress, and to implement program improvements. Program performance is reviewed annually by the board and staff for effectiveness.
15. If the agency's governing body is national, a local advisory board or equivalent body assists the board of directors in fulfilling its oversight role, particularly as it pertains to the agency's local services and finances.
16. If the organization operates under religious auspices, it separates its budget for its social service programs from its religious activities. This separation is clearly distinguishable in the agency's audited financial statements.
