HUMAN SERVICE FUND

The Human Service Fund (HSF) is a pool of general tax dollars contributed by Johnson County Government and participating cities in Johnson County, Kansas. The fund is managed by United Community Services of Johnson County (UCS) which provides a structured and accountable system that allows nonprofit agencies access to funds from multiple jurisdictions. The HSF is a competitive process that awards grants to nonprofit organizations for operating health and human service programs that promote the self-sufficiency, well-being and/or personal safety of Johnson County residents who live with income at or near the federal poverty level. Funded programs provide pathways and opportunities for building a healthy community where every resident is empowered to reach his/her full potential. Components of the safety net investment that are supported by the HSF are: 1) basic needs, 2) work and income supports, and 3) health, wellness and personal safety.

FUNDING PRIORITIES 2024

Health and human service programs funded by the Human Service Fund must:

- promote self-sufficiency, well-being and/or personal safety of Johnson County residents and fit within safety net investment components of basic needs, education/training, work and income supports, or health.
- offer county-wide services or fill a gap which results in county-wide benefit.
- offer equal access to all clients and prospective clients who could benefit from the program.
- deliver measurable outcomes which benefit county residents and, in the long-term, benefit local governments by avoiding, deferring, or preventing costs that otherwise might be incurred by local government.

Priority is given to programs that:

- address emergency aid and shelter, adequate housing, child/adult abuse, child welfare, health and mental health, work support services such as childcare and early childhood development, transportation, and job training.
- serve individuals and/or families with income below or near the federal poverty level.
- demonstrate innovation and/or collaboration in program delivery.
- are consistent with an evidence-based program, best practices or promising practices, or replicate a successful model.
- build the capacity of neighborhoods and local jurisdictions to support equity in the social determinants of health.

SMALL GRANTS POOL

Up to $20,000 is anticipated to be awarded in this category in 2024 in grant amounts of <$5,000. New potential applicants must contact UCS Director of Resource Allocation, Christina Ashie Guidry, to discuss the program for which funding is requested, how it fits within the funding priorities, the amount of the request, and to review the Small Grant Agency Standards.

501©(3) organizations with an annual budget less than $400,000 serving Johnson County residents may apply. 2022 and 2023 HSF grantees receiving $5,000 or more from HSF are not eligible for the Small Grants Pool.

Applicants must be seeking a limited amount of funds, <$5,000, for specific human service programming or projects that fall within HSF priorities. Semiannual check-ins on project outcomes and finances are required. Half of funding will be available after a signed letter of agreement is returned in February 2024 and the remaining half in two equal installments after a midpoint check in and submission of receipts demonstrating expenditure of funds and then submission of final report and expenses.

A grant review committee comprised of members of the UCS board of directors and community members will review eligible applications. The committee's recommendations will be submitted to the UCS board of directors for ratification, and then to participating jurisdictions, which have the ultimate authority.

NOTIFICATION

Notification of funding recommendations will be made by email to the email address provided in the organization's application. An applicant that deems its funding recommendation may have been affected by a substantial change in circumstances occurring after the date the application was submitted, a mistake of fact, or a procedural defect, may submit a written statement to UCS to that effect. To ensure fairness, if received at UCS offices within one (1) week after UCS emails its funding recommendations to applicants, such statement will be reviewed by UCS.
